

Mr. Bruce Gotterson

Bruce Gotterson was admitted as a solicitor in 1987. He joined Stuart Thom in 1987 and joined Pigott Stinson Stuart Thom when the firms merged in 1990.

In 1995 he joined the firm's Club Law team and has since developed an extensive practice acting for many licensed clubs throughout New South Wales. Bruce Gotterson is the author of a regular monthly article "Club Law" published in the monthly Club Life magazine which is distributed to registered clubs throughout New South Wales. He also conducts regular seminars for clubs throughout the state.

Bruce Gotterson acts for clubs on a wide range of matters, including: Liquor licensing; Constitutions; Advising on and attending meetings; Contracts and agreements; Litigation; Commercial matters and Amalgamations. He has acted on a number of Amalgamations including a number under the current regime, which came into effect in 2002