

Mr. Leighton McDonald

Leighton McDonald (BEC LLB(hons) (Macq); LLM (Osgoode Hall Law School, York)) is a Senior Lecturer at the Australian National University law school. Previously he taught at Adelaide University and was Associate to Justice Gaudron. He works in the fields of public law and legal theory and his most recent publication is, Principles of Administrative Law: Legal Regulation of Governance (Oxford University Press, 2008)(with Professor Peter Cane).'