

Mr. Tony Schwartz

Tony Schwartz has practised in the area of liquor licensing since 1979. He is the author of McDonald's Licensing Law in New South Wales, published by LexisNexis and contributes to various liquor industry publications. He has delivered several lectures and prepared papers for the New South Wales State Legal Conference, the CLE Centre, The College of Law, Television Education Network, Restaurant & Catering NSW and NSW Tourism Employment Training Corporation Limited.

Tony Schwartz has been involved in and continues to be involved in many of the significant proceedings conducted before the Licensing Court, Liquor Administration Board and the Supreme Court.

He conducts a broad licensing practice and specialises in providing advice in litigation, conveyancing, investigations, prosecutions and commercial matters for liquor and gaming licences, as well as premises licensed under the Liquor Act and Registered Clubs Act.